Just use Digimon with any powerful or finisher move. Master Tarannon: Like Pharaohmon, but more complicated. Bulbmon1: Uses a Mad Pump. You may want Digimon knowing a few strokes to move. Sanbamon: First of all, you can't beat him. Go to the shaman's hut (Tranquil Swamp) and go to the hotel and talk to Gatamone. The rest can be done here. The second fight, he uses a hunting knife that can snatch your Digimon instantly. Wait until you level 30 before facing it. HiAndromon: Atomic beam is another KO move (I think anyway). Use Digimon, who knows Kyukimon, who knows Blade Twister. WaruMonzaemon: Beware, it uses Heart Break Attack, and it reduces your power. Use Kyukimon again, or Kabuterimon with Hammer Rush. Amaterasu: BK MegaGargomon: Beware of its giant rocket! Use a kick rush, a hammer rush or a twister blade. BC Imperialdramon: Not a big threat. Influence Rush or Blade Twister are good moves here! BC Seraphimon: He uses Giga Heal when his HP is crucial. Make sure your speed is high enough and use a few shock moves. BK WarGrowlmon: uses Atomic Blaster and Mega Power. Use Impact Rush here. BK KingNumemon: Very much harder than his Asuka Amaterasu wild counterparts. His attack will freeze you. Gunslinger: Megadeath: Has 3 Digimon: Fujinmon, Sujinmon and Raijinmon. They all have high HP. Sujinmon in real % is here, as its attack strikes 3 times. Galaxy: Tail: Resist its attacks. NEVER MP MOVES, otherwise the leader will be that move even if it's your own finishing move! Body: Just goes out, uses a Ragnarok cannon (which weakens you to 1HP) and retreats. Head: True pain in... It has an extremely high HP and it counters your moves a lot (you can tell because it will block it). When he makes his weak position, be prepared for his charge attack. It uses ?!!!, which will take the form of the move you used on the tail. Once he's down, enjoy the movie of his destruction.
